

June 18-20, 2024

International Training World Game Practitioner
at Tessellations (the Beneventi school) – 1170 Yorkshire drive, Cupertino, CA

For whom?

The World Game Training is meant for educational- and health professionals who have experience in guiding, researching and/or diagnosing children and/or adults, in particular the (2E) Gifted.

Registration

Registration can be done via the official registration form on: the-worldgame.com

Your competences and experience will be examined by means of a resume (curriculum vitae) screening, after which any admission will be confirmed. If so, you then will receive all information and the invoice that must be paid prior to the training. Payment is confirmation of participation. There is only room for a limited number of participants.

Cancellation

In case you cancel up to 30 days before the start of the training, no costs will be charged.

In case you cancel within 14 days before the start of the training € 100, - administration costs will be charged. In case you cancel within 7 days before the start of the training, no refund is possible.

Day 1 – June 18 Level I

- Learn the theory and scientific background of the World Game
- Learn to identifying social and emotional aspects in the World Game
- Learn to identify learning strategies (visual and/or verbal thinking) in the World Game
- Build your own village and experience the material yourself
- Learn how to observe and fill in the form
- Including WG material, the official manual and form (digital)

Day 2 – June 19 Level II

- Practical day on which you test and observe several students building with the World Game
- Analysing the villages; learning to see what they `tell` you

Day 3 – June 20 Level III:

- Learn to identify the cognition abilities in the World Game
- Learn to identify giftedness in the World Game with the rubric
- Evaluation and certification
- License `World Game Practitioner` for the duration of the license year*

Price € 2.000,- (no VAT) and including:

- The World Game material
- The official manual of the World Game
- The official (digital) form
- Authority to purchase and work with the World Game
- License* World Game Practitioner until the July 31st, 2025

Please note there is limited space.

License `World Game Practitioner`

The successful completion of the World Game Training I, II, III entitles you to the license `World Game Practitioner` until July 31st, 2025.

This license gives you the right to:

- affiliation with the international `World Game Practitioner`
- the right to (online) feedback on built villages
- using the official logo with year indication `World Game Practitioner` on your website
- be listed as `World Game Practitioner` on the website www.the-worldgame.com
- receiving the private World Game Practitioner Newsletter

Renewal of the license

A license year runs from August 1 to July 31 of the following calendar year. Every year on August 1 the license archive will be updated. Renewal of this license is optional and is done by paying € 195, - before July 15. The invoice will be sent in June by email.

If you do not renew your license, you will be deregistered from our database and lose the license rights as described above. You still can work with the World Game of course, but you are no longer affiliated and involved in new developments, lose the right to feedback and will also not receive a new year logo to carry.

©2003 The Training World Game Practitioner is registered and owned by:

Instituut Kind in Beeld

Bosstraat 107
1731 SC Winkel
The Netherlands
info@kindinbeeld.nl
www.kindinbeeld.nl

www.the-worldgame.com
info@the-worldgame.com

www.wereldspel.nl
info@wereldspel.nl